TOURISM IN THE FEZILE DABI REGION (NORTHERN FREE STATE)

VISIT THE NORTHERN FREE STATE ON YOUR DOORSTEP

The rustic atmosphere of the Fezile Dabi Tourism region offers wonderful and exciting outdoor-orientated tourism opportunities to visitors from the north and inhabitants from the rest of the Free State.

Towns within the Fezile Dabi District include Deneysville, Edenville, Frankfort, Heilbron, Koppies, Kroonstad, Oranjeville, Parys, Sasolburg, Steynsrus, Tweeling, Villiers, Viljoenskroon and Vredefort.

A rich culture-historical inheritance confirms interest from own ranks and many leisure hours are spent at the interesting culture-historical museums at Parys and Heilbron. The battlefield at Vegkop in Heilbron and various battlefields in the Koppies and Kroonstad region where important battles were fought and events during the Boer Wars took place, are some examples. Impressive sandstone buildings throughout the region reflect interesting building styles and elegance from days gone by. Various sandstone buildings in the Kroonstad and Heilbron regions are therefore declared national memorabilia.

Although the region became an industrial region with the establishment of Sasol during the fifties in Sasolburg, it is, however, an attractive and tranquil rustic region. During the summer months the sunflowers, mealies, wheat and grain lands are surrounded by the pastel colours of vast cosmos fields – a thought for the eye and gratification for a weary soul!
